GENDER IDENTITY
Accommodations & Supportive Measures

1. NEW NET ID*
   *If the Net ID is not consistent with gender identity as it appears on @usc.edu email address

2. LETTERS TO FACULTY
   Letters informing professors of student’s pronouns and preferred name

3. NAME CHANGE AS IT APPEARS ON EMAIL INBOX
   The name that appears in your inbox when sending or receiving emails, ex: Tommy Trojan <tomtroj@usc.edu>

4. STUDENT INFO SYSTEM
   Updating the Student Information System to include preferred name as well as other systems and allows for new USC Card

The Title IX Office ensures that these gender identity accommodations are available to all USC students.
